The Christmas Dream Team Parade

It's Christmas Eve at the Carter home, and everyone is excited about the Christmas parade. However, the Carter kids begin to lose sight of the true reason we celebrate Christmas. This musical from Celeste and David T. Clydesdale combines fun songs and engaging drama to teach kids that Christmas is not simply about the gifts underneath the tree, but about the gift of Christ's life. Join the adventure as the characters learn about the importance of following Jesus and celebrating His gift of life above everything else.

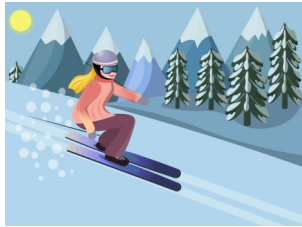

The Cast

Annabelle Laidlaw - Mom - Soloist "My Savior Gave To Me"- Narrator Bible

Annabelle is a well practiced actress. Having over 9 plays and performances under her belt, she loves to sing and work with children within the production. She has played a multitude of sports and loves to donate her time to help others who might need help. Annabelle is a strong skater and swimmer, loving to bring others with her to outdoorsy events and activities.

Josh Martin - Dad (Sunday) Narrator (Saturday) - Soloist "My Savior Gave To Me"- Narrator Bible

Joshua is 14 years old, and is in the 9th grade. He has a younger sister named Lexi. He loves to perform and looks forward to the NorthLife Christmas play every year. This is his 6th year being involved. Josh spends his free time playing both the piano and the euphonium. He loves playing hockey with his buddies in the winter and spending all his days on the golf course in the summer. Joshua hopes everyone loves the show. He greatly appreciates Ms. Karen, and all her hard work on the play every year. Thanks too, Mom and Dad.

Acknowledgement

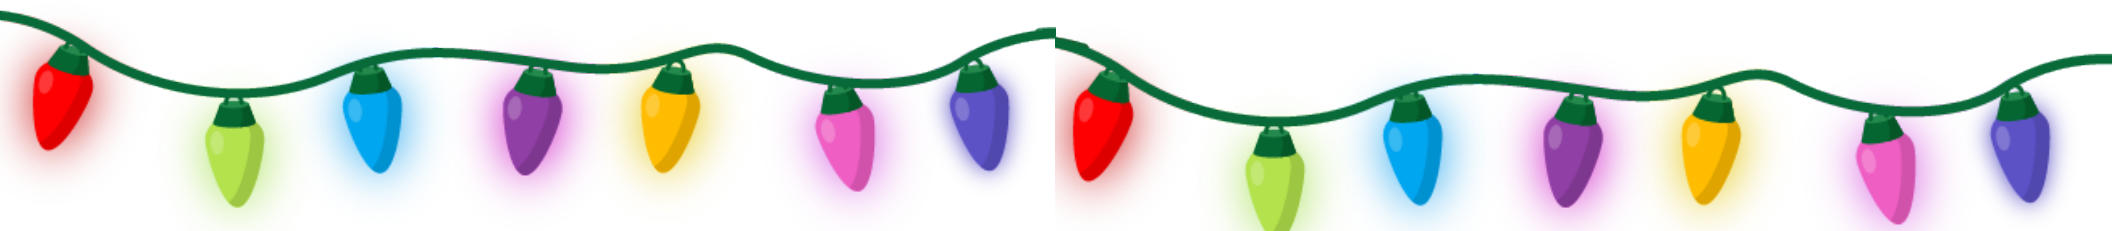

Kate Platt - Thank you for being with us each week at practice running the music for the children. Kate is one of our LIT teens, and her leadership and past experience in the plays was what we needed to make sure this year was a success.

Our Church Family - Thank you for praying and being there for the children. Ask any of them what is one of the most important things about putting on this play each year and they will tell you it is performing it for all of you. I would also like to thank everyone who baked and donated to our cookie buffet. The children in the play will tell you that the best thing about doing the play is the goodies.

NorthLife would like to invite you to join us as we celebrate the Birth of our Saviour on Christmas Eve at 6:00pm in person or through our Facebook live feed.

Join us for a cookie buffet after the program in the foyer.

Acknowledgement

Angela Austin and Anna and Sophia Bodnarchuk - for volunteering their time to be our backstage crew and dressing room coordinators. They made sure the kids were put into the correct costumes, were lined up and are ready to go when it was their time to shine. We appreciate all that you do, and the kids really love you. Thank you so very much.

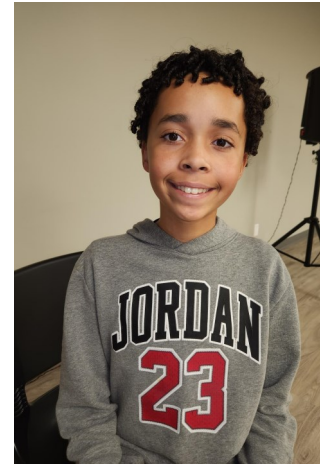

Carol Cleminson and Nina Evaskevich - Saturday night and Janet and Allison Crain - Sunday morning - for putting together the Cookie Buffet for everyone to enjoy. I want to thank you for being there to give this gift to all the children in this year's play. This is one thing they truly look forward to and you make it possible. Your time is greatly appreciated.

Stage Crew - I would like to thank Stephen Sturgis and all those that volunteered to help build the set for our production. With your work schedules, we know how important your time is and we want you to know that we appreciate the time you gave us. I also would like to thank everyone who came in throughout the week to help us put the set together and decorate it.

Devlin Laidlaw and Alexander Oger - for volunteering to be our prop managers and scene changers. Did you know they even worked on building and creating part of the set? I can't thank these two boys enough for wanting to help. Devlin was also a master at getting the children in line during practice and making sure they paid attention—I truly appreciated all of their hard work and talents.

Hope Martin and Missy Platt - For being there every Wednesday for the children. They did everything from lining up the children, to sewing costumes, hemming, organizing costume racks, shopping, movements for the songs, running the music, and directing. I know at times you think you are not doing much, but I want you both to know you do so much. Having those extra hands, eyes and ears is so helpful even if at times you are just telling the kids to be LOUDER.

A note from Karen...

Two beautiful young women, both at different stages in their lives— what a blessing I was given. This year, I am able to welcome back Annabelle Laidlaw, and I get to say goodbye to Kate Platt. These are two extraordinary young women, both with a heart for Christ and for children.

Annabelle was eager in the first production we ever did at NorthLife. She brought to life the character of Melody in the play “Special Delivery”. When I first heard Annabelle fa la la la la-ing in the foyer of the church, I hoped God would choose her to be a part of that first play. God gave her the gift of singing; it was used for many years. I needed a “Mom” in this year’s play, so God led me straight to Annabelle. It was a gift that she said “Yes” right away, and it was a gift to welcome her back.

Annabelle set a standard for the other kids in the play to follow. She understood that what she was doing was a great deal of fun, but God chose her for a purpose. The standards she set were going to be hard to follow.

What Annabelle didn’t know then, and I hope she knows now, was that she paved the way for so many who would come after her. That brings me to Kate Platt. Kate was in her first play back in 2019. “Christmas Hang-ups”. From that moment on, Kate went on to play major roles every year. God chose her to deliver His message and Kate always came with a smile, and with God’s light shining from her. When she finished her last play, she was already a member of LIT and a Sunday School teacher. Then she decided to be a major support to the children in the play. You can find Kate in the sound booth every Wednesday, running the music, making sure you can hear kids singing, and even giving them words of encouragement. Well, like all great things, God has said this time will end and this is Kate’s last play, for she is off to college. She was accepted to the University of Alberta, as she goes for her bachelor’s in education degree.

Using the songs from this year’s play, I have a final message for you:

“Tomorrow is Christmas”- there is nothing like rushing out the door and being on your own - just remember Psalm 62:6

“Trouble” – Satan is evil and can never be trusted – if it looks too good to be true, it probably is - 1 Peter 5:8

The Cast

Sierra McCandless - Giff - “My Savior Gave To Me” - Sierra is 12 years old and this is her third time in the Christmas program. She is currently in grade 7. Sierra loves sports, playing on her ringette team, as well as volleyball, dirt biking, and baking. She loves animals, not only her pets, but especially horses, cows and goats. Sierra is very responsible and loves to help out anybody who needs help as well as her family. You can see Sierra in church serving God as part of the L.I.T. program. Sierra has a heart of gold, and would like everyone to have a wonderful Christmas and a happy New Year.

Stephania Bodnarchuk - Gloria - Soloist “Colors of Christmas” - Stephania is 10 years old and in grade five. She is the youngest of four sisters. Stepha loves spending time with her friends and family, going to Ukrainian dance and basketball practices. Stepha is a very artistic and crafty girl. Lately her favourite thing is making bracelets. Hayden and Hayley mean the world to her, and they have brought her and Stephen so much joy. Family trips with her grandchildren are amazing blessings. It is such a thrill to see things through the eyes of a child. Just so you know, Karen claims all the children of the church as her own. She knows how extremely blessed she is to be able to spend time with each of them. There is nothing like experiencing a child's faith, and their expressions of love for Jesus Christ. They are all Masterpieces - gifts from God.

He loves seeing the children develop a passion for performing arts and watching them step out of their comfort zones. God has given each child gifts. Through performing arts, talents like leadership and working together come forward naturally.
